ORDER :

In terms of the orders issued in the references 1st read above and subsequent instructions issued in the references 2nd and 3rd read above, the Director of Economics & Statistics, has identified certain excess Non- Local Assistant Statistical Officers in the Combined State of Andhra Pradesh who are working in other Zones, under the control of Directorate of Economic & Statistics and he has requested the Government for the repatriation to their respective native Zones.

2. In the reference 4th read above, Government have issued orders repatriating certain identified excess Non- Local Assistant Statistical Officers, who are working in the other zones to their native zones in the Combined State of Andhra Pradesh under the provisions of the Presidential Order, 1975.

3. Abiding by the orders issued in the G.O. 4th read above, certain Assistant Statistical Officers have been relieved to their native zones and the remaining have approached the Hon'ble A.P. Administrative Tribunal on their repatriation. In the reference 5th read above the Hon'ble A.P. Administrative Tribunal have pronounced a common judgment, dt.23.04.2012 in the O.A.No.3784/2007 and batch that the repatriation orders are not violative of any of the provisions of the Presidential Order, 1975 and in the reference 6th read above, the same was upheld by the Hon'ble High Court in the Writ Petition No.13273 of 2012 & batch. Accordingly, G.A. (MC.II) Dept., have issued instructions in the reference 7th read above to repatriate the Assistant Statistical Officers to their respective Zones.

4. In the reference 8th read above, Government have issued instructions to the Director of Economic & Statistics for relieving the remaining excess Non Local Assistant Statistical Officers to their native zones immediately. But the relieving orders in the Combined State of Andhra Pradesh could not be implemented by the Director of Economics & Statistics, Telangana State due to the bifurcation process.

5. In view of the formation of the Telangana State, after careful examination of the matter, the Government hereby permit the Director of Economics & Statistics to relieve the following identified excess Non Local Assistant Statistical Officers and Deputy Statistical Officers, who
